It is very fine to see the sunrise and the dew sparkle like gems in the early morn in the country, but a little later in the day comes that hungry feeling.

A bountiful supply of hearty foods will assist nature in making your stay in the country pleasant.

Diminutive sized tins of meat and fishes, little tins of fruits and cheese, small tins of biscuits and puree of foie gras, individual bottles olives for a bicycle luncheon or excursion.

The latest novelty in biscuits especially for bicyclists.

For those away from home we offer perfected facilities for prompt shipment of mail orders.

small orders shipped quicker than big ones and just as cheerfully. Do as we do—get the best for your money.

Quantity counts; but what is the use of food if it isn't good? True of Hawaii and the whole country: Plenty of food, not plenty of good food.

To live well need not mean extravagance; it means good taste and knowing where to buy.

Our store is the where to buy. It's big, bright, up to date, busy, alive to the march of prosperity; importing direct from the fountain heads of production, and selling direct to families.

That ought to count, and it does. Our prices are the lowest.

Flagship Changed—Bark Colorado's Pilika—Keahou to Lahaina—Frisco Shipments—Kaena Out—Foreign Shipping.

The steamer Keahou goes to Lahaina tomorrow morning.

The Belgic brought 87 packages from San Francisco last Saturday, mostly merchandise.

Admiral Miller shifted his flag from the Bennington to the Baltimore at ten o'clock this morning. The Bennington is now the guard-ship.

Latest coast charters to Honolulu are the schooner Mildred (new) with lumber from Eureka and the bark Mauna Ala and barkentine Imgard with merchandise from San Francisco.

The bark Colorado which brought coal to Honolulu some time ago is in trouble at Port Townsend from the improper stowage of live stock bound for the Klondike. There are 430 horses and cattle on board nearly all provided with a sled and packsaddle. But 160 of that number were stowed in the after hold where the temperature was about 120 degrees the vessel being so loaded down as to render it impossible to secure proper ventilation.

KICK ABOUT MARINE LIGHTS.

Many Beacons Along Shore Are Not Kept Burning.

Complaint is again made that the Government light houses throughout the group are being neglected and that vessels are imperiled on account of not being able to locate the charted signals at night.

It will be remembered that the Japanese Commissioner, on his visit to Hawaii last summer, became very nervous and alarmed on reaching Kawaihae to find the light at that place out. He straightway surmised that the lights in the islands were being systematically tampered with to throw the Japanese war vessels off.

Not until Captain Clarke of the Kama had showed him by his lights that the Kawaihae light was frequently not burning did the Commissioner become satisfied.

This light, it would appear, is not the only one that is allowed to do pretty much as it will. Others have been found to be out during the night within the past few months.

The cause of the trouble seems to be that the Interior Department intrusts the care of the lights to private parties and corporations, all of whom have many other things to look after. A gentleman has suggested as the proper remedy the appointment by the Government of a competent light inspector whose duty it should be to provide better light keepers and see that the lights are always kept burning.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus Spreckels are occupying their new residence on Van Ness avenue, corner of Clay street, San Francisco.

SAILOR'S HOME NOTES.

Manager Buxome Shows That the Institution Still Lives.

Mr. Buxome, manager of the Sailor's Home, wishes to inform all those interested in the Home work, that it is going on as well as ever. "Every Sunday I take large bundles of reading matter aboard all the different ships in the port," he writes; "at the same time inviting the men to attend the different services held during the day and also to the Home. The latter invitation is very generally accepted, the men taking advantage of the benefit offered in the way of baths, billiards, and reading-room, also many of them like to lie out on the grass under the shady trees and talk and smoke their pipes."

"In the past few months, shipping not being heavy, the percentage of men in port has been small, therefore fewer have visited us. It is to be hoped that the services formerly held aboard the ships in port will be resumed shortly. Plans are now being formed. We hope to see Mr. Day in charge again. He is a most faithful and vigorous worker."

"Reading matter of any kind is always acceptable, especially pictorials, as the sailors are very fond of these. We cordially invite all interested to call and inspect the home."
